

INVENTION: TELEPHONE

Invented by Alexander Graham Bell
Patented in 1876

Fun facts:

- Bell's mother and wife were both deaf. His experiments with hearing and sound were important when working on this invention.
- The first sentences spoken through Bell's telephone were to his assistant: Mr. Watson! Come here! I want to see you!